You have been given authority over fear!

Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.
— Luke 10:19

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Missionary Mandate

While Jesus probably did not get a positive response from the three individuals mentioned in last Sunday's gospel, today's passage on the other hand confirms that many others did accept the invitation. They not only answered the call, but also had enough confidence reposed in them that, Jesus sends them out to preach in his name. That missionary mandate is given to each and every one of us.

The Catechism in the following paragraphs provides a little more on this enterprise:

“The Lord Jesus endowed his community with a structure that will remain until the Kingdom is fully achieved. Before all else there is the choice of the Twelve with Peter as their head. Representing the twelve tribes of Israel, they are the foundation stones of the new Jerusalem. The Twelve and the other disciples share in Christ's mission and his power, but also in his lot. By all his actions, Christ prepares and builds his Church. (CCC, 765)

“When the work which the Father gave the Son to do on earth was accomplished, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost in order that he might continually sanctify the Church.” Then ‘the Church was openly displayed to the crowds and the spread of the Gospel among the nations, through preaching, was begun.’ As the ‘convocation’ of all men for salvation, the Church in her very nature is missionary, sent by Christ to all the nations to make disciples of them. (CCC, 767)

“From the beginning, Jesus associated his disciples with his own life, revealed the mystery of the Kingdom to them, and gave them a share in his mission, joy, and sufferings. Jesus spoke of a still more intimate communion between him and those who would follow him: ‘Abide in me, and I in you. .. I am the vine, you are the branches.’ And he proclaimed a mysterious and real communion between his own body and ours: ‘He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.’ (CCC, 787)

“The minister should ask nothing for the administration of the sacraments beyond the offerings defined by the competent authority, always being careful that the needy are not deprived of the help of the sacraments because of their poverty.’ The competent authority determines these ‘offerings’ in accordance with the principle that the Christian people ought to contribute to the support of the Church's ministers. ‘The laborer deserves his food.’” (CCC, 2122)

Like the disciples, may we find joy in sharing God's word and our faith with others.

Have a blessed week everyone!

Fr. Bernardine

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS SUNDAY

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...'" (Luke 10:2)

As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charisms or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God's Church. Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.

WORD OF LIFE

"Father and maker of all, you adorn all creation with splendor and beauty, and fashion human lives in your image and likeness. Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life."

DID YOU KNOW OUR FAITH?

The word, "Decalogue" means 10 words. God revealed these ten words to his people on a holy mountain. According to Exodus 31:18, they were written with "the finger of God." Therefore, these were not the same as the commandments written by Moses. In the New Covenant in Jesus, the fuller meaning of the ten words are revealed. (CCC#2056)
