Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Extraordinary Missionary Month October 2019

This Sunday is World mission Sunday, a day set aside to remind us that we are always on mission. We are on mission in support of missionaries by our prayers and material support. The church, that is, everyone of us, is a missionary one and that is never going to change, because that is the mandate given by our Lord to the apostles and through them to us.

Pope Francis' message continued from last week

The universality of the salvation offered by God in Jesus Christ led Benedict XV to call for an end to all forms of nationalism and ethnocentrism, or the merging of the preaching of the Gospel with the economic and military interests of the colonial powers. In his Apostolic Letter Maximum Illud, the Pope noted that the Church's universal mission requires setting aside exclusivist ideas of membership in one's own country and ethnic group. The opening of the culture and the community to the salvific newness of Jesus Christ requires leaving behind every kind of undue ethnic and ecclesial introversion. Today too, the Church needs men and women who, by virtue of their baptism, respond generously to the call to leave behind home, family, country, language and local Church, and to be sent forth to the nations, to a world not yet transformed by the sacraments of Jesus Christ and his holy Church. By proclaiming God's word, bearing witness to the Gospel and celebrating the life of the Spirit, they summon to conversion, baptize and offer Christian salvation, with respect for the freedom of each person and in dialogue with the cultures and religions of the peoples to whom they are sent. The missio ad gentes, which is always necessary for the Church, thus contributes in a fundamental way to the process of ongoing conversion in all Christians. Faith in the Easter event of Jesus; the ecclesial mission received in baptism; the geographic and cultural detachment from oneself and one's own home; the need for salvation from sin and liberation from personal and social evil: all these demand the mission that reaches to the very ends of the earth.

The providential coincidence of this centenary year with the celebration of the Special Synod on the Churches in the Amazon allows me to emphasize how the mission entrusted to us by Jesus with the gift of his Spirit is also timely and necessary for those lands and their peoples. A renewed Pentecost opens wide the doors of the Church, in order that no culture remain closed in on itself and no people cut off from the universal communion of the faith. No one ought to remain closed in self-absorption, in the self-referentiality of his or her own ethnic and religious affiliation. The Easter event of Jesus breaks through the narrow limits of worlds, religions and cultures, calling them to grow in respect for the dignity of men and women, and towards a deeper conversion to the truth of the Risen Lord who gives authentic life to all. To be concluded.

Have a blessed week everyone!

Fr. Bernardine

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS SUNDAY

"...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..." (2 Timothy 4:2)

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He called us to be faithful.

WORD OF LIFE

"This year's theme, Christ Our Hope: In Every Season of Life, is particularly suited for the times in which we live. The attacks against human life seem to grow more numerous and callous by the day. Despite these challenges, we know that Christ has conquered sin and death once and for all. Through our Christian hope in the Resurrection, we are given the grace to persevere in faith. Our sacrifices on behalf of the Gospel of Life can contribute to the redemption of this current culture of death."

Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann, Chairman
 USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities

EXTRAORDINARY MISSION MONTH STORIES

During this Extraordinary Mission Month, we pray for the poor and missionaries in the Caribbean, where children sometimes bathe in and drink from gutters and eat cookies made from dirt just to put something in their stomachs.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Fourth Commandment, is addressed to children in their relationship with their mother and father, a universal relationship. But honoring your father and your mother has greater ties than just in the domestic church. It includes the requirement to honor and show gratitude to elders and ancestors. It further extends to anyone in authority who is working for the good and in whom God has entrusted his authority: students to teachers, citizens to country, employees to employer. (CCC# 2197-2200)
